Columbia Heights Citizens Organize Campaign.

DR. GIBBS CHOSEN CHAIRMAN

In Effort to Raise $500 for Maintaining the Mount Pleasant Playground Through Winter, Citizens Plan Campaign that Is Already on Way to Success with $150 on Hand.

Residents of Columbia Heights last night perfected organization for a campaign to be conducted for the raisof $500 for the continuance of the Mount Pleasant playground at Fourteenth street and Columbia road.

At a meeting at the office of Dr. B. F. Gibbs, in Irving street northwest. Dr. Gibbs was elected chairman of the special committee appointed by the Columbia Heights Citizens' Association. Edward S. Fawcett was elected treasurer and J. Clinton Hiatt secretary.

Fund Has Good Start.

More than $150 has been subscribed in addition to the $50 voted by the citizens' association. It was decided last night to place subscription papers at the Park Savings Bank as well as at the following drug stores: C. E. Gross, Fourteenth street and Park road; Edwin Yarnold, Fourtenth and Monroe streets; W. C. hompson, Fourteenth and Irving streets; R. G. Petzold, Eleventh and Harvard streets; Carpenter & Dunlap, Fourteenth and Girard streets; Emerson's, Eleventh McHugh, $1; Mr. M. B. Rat street and Park road, and Campbell's, Thompson, $10; total, $343. Mount Pleasant street and Park road. Subscriptions may also be mailed to Preasurer E. S. Fawcett, cashier of the TO FIGHT DISCOUNT VOUCHERS. Park Savings Bank.

The Mount Pleasant playground is the latest one to be equipped in Washington, and has proven to be the most popular. The attendance frequently is as high as 1,000 a day. The officers of the Playground Association, however, are very anxious that sufficient funds may be se-

APPEAL FOR FUNDS.

The board of directors of the Washington Playground Association, because of lack of funds, reluctantly ordered, at a meeting held October 31, that the municipal playgrounds be closed Saturday, November 12, unless a sufficient sum was available at that time for their maintenance during the remainder of November and Saturdays and holidays during December, January, February, and March.

The Columbia Heights Citizens' Association, at a meeting held November 1, agreed to raise $500 to keep open the Mount Pleasant Playground. The Washington Playground Association appeals to the public for contributions in order that the playgrounds in other sections of the city may also be kept open.

Five thousand dollars is needed to complete the budget to July 1, 1911, when it is hoped that the District Commissioners will, under authority of Congress, assume control with ample funds. Every one is requested to help in this emergency. During the week ending October 15, the total at-tedance was 33,348, or a daily average of 5,558. Checks should be made payable to John B. Sleman, jr., treasurer, and sent to room 515, Metropolitan Bank most pleasant nature all the way through. In drafting and building his stage story, Mr. Gibson chose for the locale his old home outside of Alexandria, Va. Here Brent Breckenridge, the young hero, through adverses has been obliged to sell the historic home of his ancestors to a New York capitalist. Coal in abundance has been found on the property, unknown to Breckenride, and Ferguson the capitalist, has found a company to mine it. In getting the capital for this venture and gaining a roadway from the property to the railroad yards hinges the action of the story this clever writer has built his play on. Of course, the antics of little Dan Cupid can't be over-looked in a story of to-day, and he shines very brightly in bringing the New York heiress and the young Southerner together through the latter's expert horse-manship in rescuing her from being lashed to instant death when her horse has bolted with her. As true love stories are never allowed to run smoothly, there are naturally many complications in this particular case of more than ordinary passing interest, but naturally harmony has won the day at the fall of the final urtain, and the audience wends home ward with the pleasant feeling of having witnessed an exceptionally interesting stage story well told and worked out.
